The screenshot shows the homepage of the hackUST 2022 website. At the top right, there are links for "Create an account" and "Log in". A yellow arrow points from the text in the left sidebar to the "Create an account" button. Below the navigation bar, the main header features the "hackUST 2022" logo, the event title "Online Hackathon March - April 2022", and logos of the organizing institutions: HKUST Entrepreneurship Center, Nan Fung Group, The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, and the 36th anniversary of CUHK. A secondary navigation bar includes the event title, team size ("Teams 2 - 5 people"), and time remaining ("98 days left"). Below this is a menu with options like "Share" and "Participate". The main content area has a "Welcome to hackUST" section with a "Create an account to pre-register for the hackUST 2022" button. A central box states "held online in March - April 2022" and "Pre-registration required". A large text block describes the event's prize value, purpose, and history, ending with a call to action: "Don't miss your chance, create an account now!".

The image shows a screenshot of the hackUST 2022 website. The header includes the hackUST logo, the text "hackUST 2022 | powered by Nan Fung Group", and navigation links for "Teams" (2 - 5 people) and "39 days left". A yellow arrow points from the "Participate" button in the top right corner to a modal window titled "Participate". The modal window contains the following text: "To participate in this challenge, create a team of 2 to 5 people". It features two options: "1 team open" with a "Join a team" button, and "You already have an idea? Create your own team!" with a "Create a team" button.

Thank you so much for your participation! Good Luck!
